- ⇒ As you may know, Rodney Hayes, a truly dedicated and knowledgeable asset to the Town Of Randolph for many years, has retired due to a debilitating medical condition. Rodney touched all of us with his desire to help everyone he came in contact with, and there were many. Words alone cannot describe what Rodney has done for the Town of Randolph. The Board of Selectmen invites all members of the Randolph Family to contribute to his gift. Please send or drop-off at the Selectmen's office cash or checks made payable to Rodney Hayes (Town Hall, 130 Durand Rd.)
- ⇒ Anyone who needs an absentee ballot for the Sept 11 State Primary and/or the Nov 6 Federal Election can get an application from the Town Clerk. Or go online to SOS.NH.Gov and go to the election section for an application.
- ⇒ Carol Horton is missing a piece of light green plastic bubble wrap used to wrap pictures. It has her initials on it and was last seen at the Town Hall at the art show. If you have any information, please call her at 915-0629.
- ⇒ Please watch for announcements regarding the children's program at the Library. The schedule was not available at the time of printing.
